Dear All,

I am very glad to introduce you the first issue of online e-journal, "International Journal of Medical, Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences (IJMPBS)", a peer reviewed and subscription free open access journal. The goal behind the launch of this journal is to help students, researchers and scientists worldwide to benefit from the high quality and peer reviewed scientific articles and to interconnect their high performing works in the whole field of Pharmaceutical sciences. IJMPBS is dedicated to the advancement of research and spreading of information in Medical, Biological, Pharmaceutical sciences and related multidiscipline.

We have an outstanding Editorial Board to guide us of all the exhilarating current and future trends in the field of Medical, Biological and Pharmaceutical Sciences. The editorial team is founded by distinguished members of industry and academics from various disciplines and geopolitical region. We strongly believe that IJMPBS will provide a worldwide opportunity for the development of research and technology in the area of Medical, Biological, and Pharmaceutical sciences. It will also provide the platform for the industry- academic interaction and hopefully will foster and boost the collective efforts. With the help of high-quality editorial team, reviewers and authors, we believe that our goals will be achieved in near future.

It would be my great pleasure to thank all the editorial board members, reviewers and authors for their co-operation and support in bringing this inaugural issue of the journal possible and make it a fabulous achievement. I take this opportunity to warmly welcome all students, researchers and professionals to submit their valuable research work for publication in IJMPBS.

Thanks.

With regards,

Associate Editor,

International Journal of Medical, Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences (IJMPBS)
