Dear All,

I am very happy to introduce Issue-1, Volume-2 of an online e-journal entitled, "International Journal of Medical, Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences (IJMPBS)", which is a peer reviewed and subscription free open access journal. This issue consists of total five articles. This issue covers topics from the different disciplines of pharmaceutical sciences. A review article has provided a comprehensive insight about nanocrystals and drug delivery using silk nanospheres. The current issue deliberates about a systematic approach to be followed in pharmaceutical industry for cleaning validation. This issue also covers in depth discussion on sources, properties, and applications of galactomannans as an important excipient in pharmaceutical dosage forms.

The goal behind the launch of this journal is to help students, researchers and scientists worldwide to benefit from the high quality and peer reviewed scientific articles and to interconnect their high performing works in the whole field of Medical, Biological, Pharmaceutical sciences and related disciplines.

I would like to congratulate and thanks all authors for their participation, encouragement, publication of articles in this issue. The editorial board members and reviewers have taken extensive efforts for reviewing the manuscripts critically for maintaining the quality standards of the journal. I thanks to all readers, students, researchers and professionals who have visited our journal website. Looking forward for your continuous encouragement and support.

Thanks.

With regards,

Associate Editor,

International Journal of Medical, Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences (IJMPBS)
