Dear All,

I am eager to announce that Issue-2, Volume-2 of the peer-reviewed open access "International Journal of Medical, Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences (IJMPBS)" journal has been successfully released and is available online. Over-all five articles are included in this issue. This issue covers articles from the different disciplines like Medicinal chemistry, Pharmaceutics, Industrial pharmacy & Alternative medicines. The current issue discusses about Synthesis and evaluation of 4(3H) Quinazolinone derivatives. This issue also covers in depth discussion on analytical approaches for extractable and leachable from pharmaceutical product. The present issue also provides survey-based information on benefits and side effects experienced by common public after administration of Covid-19 vaccine. An overview of a Bach Flower remedy is also featured in the current issue.

I extend my heartfelt congratulations and gratitude to every author who contributed to this issue. Your participation, support, and article submissions have been instrumental in making this journal a valuable resource. Our editorial board members and reviewers have put in significant effort to rigorously evaluate the submitted papers, maintaining the journal's commitment to high-quality standards.

I also want to express my appreciation to all those who have visited our journal's website, including readers, researchers, students, and professionals. Your engagement is crucial, and we eagerly anticipate your continued inspiration and assistance as we move forward.

I extend my thanks to Editor of IJMPBS for giving me an opportunity to edit this issue as an Guest editor.

With regards,

Dr. Harshal Ashok Pawar
